TO EAT AND DRINK.

The Banquet Our People Will Give The Editors.

Plenty of Money—Judge Fox Toastmaster—The Ladies Helping.

There is a portending feeling of a success in the way Twin City people are taking hold of the citizens banquet to the editors. At the committee meeting Monday night at the Palace of News much was done. The soliciting committees reported a fund of $68.50 up to that time.

Judge James D. Fox, was unanimously chosen toastmaster for the occasion. By a unanimous vote it was decided to hold the banquet in Marble Hill. Senator Drum, Dr. E. P. Biggs, Dr. C. A. Sander and Dr. J. A. Reck were appointed as a committee to prepare the menu for the occasion. They will report at the meeting of the committee Monday evening next. At that time the preparation of the banquet will be given to some one, and work will be begun. Misses Cora Drum, Flora Frymire, Mollie Fischer and Alice Dominico attended the meeting. These ladies, with Mrs. H. A. Clark and Miss Vallie Revelle were appointed a committee of lady workers. They were requested to canvas the ladies of the Twin Cities for the furnishing of cakes and floral decorations for the banquet. They will report Monday evening.

Covers will be laid for from seventy-five to one hundred people, and it is expected that a fund of not less than $80 will be raised.

The people of the Twin Cities are taking a deep interest in the matter, and will give a grand entertainment to the visiting editors.

Arrangements are in progress for a social entertainment for those who remain in the cities until Sunday. The committee is working on an estimate that fifty visitors will be present. They hope that a no smaller number will be present. Brother newspaper men should note this and give us a rousing attendance.

Secretary S. G. Tetwiler of the association was up for a conference with President Tom Allen as to plans for insuring a large attendance. It was requested that each newspaper in the district publish the program as it will appear in the Charleston Democrat this week. The president and secretary will also write personal letters to each editor in the district urging them to attend.

They Read It.

A few weeks ago the Press stated that F. A. Stanton would move his stove factory and increase its capacity. Within the past two weeks he has received no less than fifty letters asking for positions. This shows that the Press is widely circulated and carefully read. And it shows too that it is read by laboring people, who spend their money freely. Merchants should note this fact in placing their advertisements.

New Post Master.

Captain W. S. King last Saturday took charge of the Lutesville post office, and removed it to new quarters in King & Revelle's store. His bran new case is quite convenient and attractive, and is a credit to the town. Miss Vallie Revelle will be deputy postmaster. J. S. Lane is giving instructions for a new sign.

A SENSATION.

But It Is Founded On Absolute Truth.

Special to the Press.
CAPE GIRARDEAU, July 25.—The papers have created a sensation here by announcing that Flettge & Wood will commence their annual Clearance Sale on August 7, and continue one week. But everyone has perfect confidence in the statement for "The Boys" mean just what they say, and when they open up a Clearance Sale it means that goods must be cleared out, for they make prices that will move them. People who attended their big clearance sale last year will be sure to go this year and take many of their neighbors with them.

You Bollinger county people should not get left, but should secure your share of the Bargains, offered in this sale. Remember, the sale commences August 7, and lasts but one week. I will be a holiday week for the people here.

Fired Last Monday.

Cofer, Dickey & Co's brick kiln containing 200,000 brick was fired last Monday morning and the brick will be ready for use about one week from next Monday.

The 200,000 kiln of F. P. Trautwein's machine made brick was also fired Wednesday and will be completed about the same time. If the brick burn well, it will be a great benefit to the Twin Cities, as it is an enterprise new to us.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A Rag Tacking—At the Hotel Items.

A fairly large party of his young friends attended a very pleasant party given to Wendell Frymire by his parents at their residence last Saturday evening. The party was in lieu of a birthday party that was to have been enjoyed on that occasion a few months ago.

The evening was spent in the usual pleasant games, and a tempting lunch was served. The decorum of the young folks was commendable. Several friends of his sister, Miss Flora were present a short time.

Mrs. D. C. Clippard gave a rag tacking at her residence last Monday afternoon. Her guests were all married ladies. Laying aside home duties, they became old fashioned and chatty and passed a delightful afternoon at the prosaic work of tacking carpet tags.

A delicious lunch of cream and cake was served. Mrs. Robert Drum, Mrs. W. F. Kinder, Mrs. A. Mayer, Mrs. W. P. McCans, Mrs. Henry Elfrank, and Mrs. Hahn were present.

Miss Bee Burks entertained a very congenial little party at the Commercial hotel in Lutesville last Friday night. The usual social diversions, including some choice music were indulged in during the evening. A delicious lunch of ice cream and cake was served. Miss Burks is a very pleasant and entertaining hostess and her guests were more than delighted with the evening spent.

Miss Mollie Fischer treated Mr. Hugo Sachs and the editor to a feast of blackberries Tuesday. These are times and circumstances under which a blackberry patch is the most delightful place on earth.

An accumulation of Remittants for two years will be sold at one half price at Flettge & Woods Clearance Sale, Cape Girardeau. Commences August 7, and continues one week only.

Misses Hattie Burford, Bee Burks, Maude Smith and Mary Burkett attended the picnic at Marquand Saturday.

Mrs. W. C. Taffey visited her son Robert in the country last week.
